

Larson & Darby Group - Religious

2009 AIA Northern Illinois Chapter Outstanding Firm of the Year

Westminster Presbyterian Church - Rockford, IL

Our approach to the design of Religious Architecture is based on a fundamental and thorough understanding of a faith community's specific liturgical requirements, the aspirations of the faith community and its leaders, collaboration with the community, and providing outstanding client service. Our knowledge and expertise has been carefully nurtured and developed in our work on over 250 religious projects for numerous faith communities throughout the country. This work has provided us with the insight necessary to realize a religious project that culminates in the most appropriate expression of a faith community's needs and objectives. From small chapels to schools and the largest of churches, Larson & Darby Group is dedicated to the creation of inspired Religious Architecture.
